

Vicar (0.5)

Pattingham with Patshull

This is an exciting opportunity for a 0.5 post in a village of 2,200 inhabitants, set in a predominantly rural environment, situated between the West Midlands and Shropshire.

About the role

- We are seeking a Vicar who will bring a strong spiritual and pastoral lead to a committed and caring congregation in this beautiful South Staffordshire village setting.
- The Church is an intrinsic and influential part of the local community and we are eager to develop our local presence and engage with all constituencies.
- You will embrace and further develop the range of worshipping traditions at St. Chad's which reflect our Anglican and non-Anglican composition.
- There are good links with the local Church School and we are keen to develop these further to attract the next generation into Church.

About you

- You will lead a talented, committed and vibrant local lay team.
- As our spiritual lead, you will bring variety and vision to a congregation hungry for spiritual growth.
- You will bring a passion for the on-going development of the Church in its community and be comfortable and involved in village life.
- You will bring personality, energy and fresh ideas to an environment where you will be embraced by a Church which is open, friendly and welcoming.
